Events happening in the next few days

We have three events coming up in the next few days which we would love to see you at – Saturday 15th June dressage clinic with Sian Larken at Bull Farm. This can be a private lesson or a test and re-test. Chance to practice for the Roadshow or some are using it to try out new Dressage to music routines. 45 minute session cost £25 Book on planit bookit.

Next is the Dressage Roadshow at Comphurst. Thursday 20th June We are lucky to have this amazing venue to use. Courtesy of Tanya and her husband. Tests will be on grass in roped off arena. This is a chance to get out on the green stuff ahead of Friends of Freddie or to practice for the Area dressage or just to get out! Refreshments provided by RVRC juniors. Nearly the longest day so hopefully some decent weather rather than the deluges we have been having. First test 4.30pm. Enter on planit-bookit

Finally on the longest day Friday 21st June - a tack sale at Staplecross Village Hall. Tables cost £10. Doors open 4.15 pm for sellers. 5.00pm for buyers contact Caroline Morris on 07801121900 to book a table. Entry 50p children under 18 £1 adults.

PAST EVENTS – I've been remiss in not giving any reports on past events so we've had the Quiz at Sedlescombe Village Hall. Very successful evening with lovely food provided. The quiz was won by the Jolly Jodhpurs. Consisting of Jane Miles, Anna Levy, Jenny Lee, Jo Hunn, Jess Hunn and Christine Buckland.

Next was the Easter showjumping which ran from 9.30 until 4.30 with over 80 rounds jumped including a Top Score to finish and great fun had by all.

Then we had the Fun Day at Bull farm. This was enjoyed by everyone who attended. There was a variety of events – clear round showjumping, test and re-test and finally spook busting obstacles. Together with a barbecue this event proved very popular with requests to hold it again next year. A picture from the day is on the top of this newsletter.

SALE OF SHOW JUMPS

The club has far more jumps than it regularly uses. Currently we are going through the process of sorting and cleaning our show jumps, identifying the ones we do not want to keep with the idea of photographing them and offering them for sale back to club members. So watch this space for more information.

Watch out for evening clear round showjumping coming up this Summer
