

Code of Practice for Junior Members

Rother Valley Riding Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, volunteers and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Rosie Redford, Club Welfare Officer.

As a member of Rother Valley Riding Club, you are expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

- Ride within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
- Use correct and proper language at all times.
- Recognise fair competition and applauding good performances of all, not just results.
- Respect all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- You must wear suitable safety equipment and clothing for training sessions and competitions, as agreed with the coach/team manager.
- Junior members are not allowed to smoke or vape on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions.
- Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or prohibited substances of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club.
